15 INITIAL INCIDENT DESCRIPTION / NARRATIVE:
[On 08/10/2018 at 1829 hours, dispatch received a call from a patron on a King County Metro bus. The radio broadcast was as follows: "Approximately 2 minutes ago, caller reported that a male was carrying an underage drunk girl off of the bus. They were removed from the bus due to riders complaining that he was groping her publicly. Last seen South-bound on foot. Male suspect is a Hispanic Male, long hair in ponytail, some facial hair, wearing a white tee shirt. Female is a white female, blond hair, white tee shirt and shorts".

I was dispatched, and checked the area for the two individuals. While checking the area, I noticed that a Seattle Fire Unit was parked at the call location. I decided to check with SOD to see if the subject they were out with was the female in question. As I turned around, dispatch advised that they needed an "expedited response for an intoxicated male and female." I advised dispatch that this was likely related to my initial call, and that I was arriving to SFD's location.

Myself, and my partner (Officer Passarella 8425) arrived on scene. I immediately noticed that the two people were, in fact, our subjects from the original call. One of the Seattle Fire Dept. Medics on scene (Wheatley, William SFD Station 11) informed me that the male (later ID'd as Anderson, Joey Lamar DOB 09/18/1989) would not leave the female (later ID'd as Vassis, Madison C. DOB 10/13/1999) alone, and was trying to drag her off. Vassis was in a near cationic state, and seemed to be in and out of consciousness. I grasped Anderson by the arm and moved him away from Vassis so that SFD could treat her.

I left Anderson with my partner and returned to Vassis and SFD. Wheatley told me that when he arrived on scene, Vassis stated that she didn't know Anderson, and that he was trying to have sex with her. She also said that she was scared. Vassis's state seemed to be in continual deterioration, her eyes kept rolling in the back of her head for a few moments, then she would come back to, and try to talk. Based on my training and experience, it seemed that Vassis was under the influence of more than just alcohol, I found it possible that she could have been drugged.

My interview with Vassis seemed mostly fruitless, as she was incapable of answering questions. When I knelt down to speak with her, she was sprawled back, with her shoulders supported by one of the Firefighters. Her legs were spread apart, and her skirt was hiked up. It was apparent that her underwear was stretched out in the crotch area, as if someone had been at yanking at them with force.

I then spoke with a witness who stood by and waited for Officers. I ID'd her as 1(d) DOB 1(d)/1989. She said that she came out of her apartment and found Anderson with Vassis. She said that Vassis was nearly unconscious, and that Anderson had her pushed up against a cement retaining wall. Anderson had one hand in-between her thighs, was kissing her neck, and his other hand was unbuttoning his pants. I briefly spoke with another witnesses on scene who had a similar account of what Hebel witnessed.

Anderson said that he didn't know Vassis. He said he met her earlier today on Aurora Ave. N. When asked what they were doing previous to the incident on the bus, he said they were "kicking it".

I took Anderson into custody, and read him his Miranda Warnings. Anderson demanded to know what he was "being charged with". I informed him that he was under arrest for RCW 9A.44.100 Indecent Liberties. I went on to explain to him that a person is guilty of indecent Liberties when they knowingly cause another person to have sexual contact with them by either forcible compulsion, or when the other person is incapable of consent by being mentally incapacitated. I then pointed to Vassis, who was unconscious on the ground, and asked him if he thought she was capable of consenting. Anderson responded by saying "I'm done talking to you". With that, I moved Anderson to the front of my vehicle where he was searched incident to arrest.

During the search, I recovered two latex condoms from Anderson's right front pocket. I also recovered a half consumed 5th of alcohol that was stuffed down the front of Anderson's pants. Both the alcohol, and the condoms were entered into evidence. Anderson was then transported to King County jail via backing Officers Bisch 8492 and Daane 8493.

Officer Passarella stated that he was able to make contact with Vassis's mother. He said that her behavior was very odd. Passarella said that Vassis's mother did not seem concerned about the situation in the least. She told him that they were currently living out of a hotel room at the Holiday Inn express on Aurora Ave N. (across the highway from the scene). Passarella said that she told him that she thought Vassis was on a date with an "eye doctor" and that was all she knew. When Officer Passarella called her back for some follow up questions, she didn't answer the phone, and that the name on her voicemail was not the same last name as Vassis's.

Vassis was transported to Harborview Medical Center via AMR. I followed AMR to HMC and informed Medical staff about the incident. Staff stated that they would be conducting the appropriate medical examinations including a toxicology screen due to the nature of the incident.

Officer Bisch took audio statements from witnesses and uploaded them to DEMS.

This incident was screened with Sgt. Lang 6668.

15 INITIAL INCIDENT DESCRIPTION / NARRATIVE:

[On 08/10/2018 at 1829 hours, dispatch received a call from a patron on a King County Metro bus. The radio broadcast was as follows: "Approximately 2 minutes ago, caller reported that a male was carrying an underage drunk girl off of the bus. They were removed from the bus due to riders complaining that he was groping her publicly. Last seen South-bound on foot. Male suspect is a Hispanic Male, long hair in ponytail, some facial hair, wearing a white tee shirt. Female is a white female, blond hair, white tee shirt and shorts".

I was dispatched, and checked the area for the two individuals. While checking the area, I noticed that a Seattle Fire Unit was parked at the call location. I decided to check with SOD to see if the subject they were out with was the female in question. As I turned around, dispatch advised that they needed an "expedited response for an intoxicated male and female." I advised dispatch that this was likely related to my initial call, and that I was arriving to SFD's location.

Myself, and my partner (Officer Passarella 8425) arrived on scene. I immediately noticed that the two people were, in fact, our subjects from the original call. One of the Seattle Fire Dept. Medics on scene (Wheatley, William SFD Station 11) informed me that the male (later ID'd as Anderson, Joey Lamar DOB 09/18/1989) would not leave the female (later ID'd as Vassis, Madison C. DOB 10/13/1999) alone, and was trying to drag her off. Vassis was in a near cationic state, and seemed to be in and out of consciousness. I grasped Anderson by the arm and moved him away from Vassis so that SFD could treat her.

I left Anderson with my partner and returned to Vassis and SFD. Wheatley told me that when he arrived on scene, Vassis stated that she didn't know Anderson, and that he was trying to have sex with her. She also said that she was scared. Vassis's state seemed to be in continual deterioration, her eyes kept rolling in the back of her head for a few moments, then she would come back to, and try to talk. Based on my training and experience, it seemed that Vassis was under the influence of more than just alcohol, I found it possible that she could have been drugged.

My interview with Vassis seemed mostly fruitless, as she was incapable of answering questions. When I knelt down to speak with her, she was sprawled back, with her shoulders supported by one of the Firefighters. Her legs were spread apart, and her skirt was hiked up. It was apparent that her underwear was stretched out in the crotch area, as if someone had been at yanking at them with force.

I then spoke with a witness who stood by and waited for Officers. I ID'd her as [REDACTED] 1(d) DOB [REDACTED] 1(d) /1989. She said that she came out of her apartment and found Anderson with Vassis. She said that Vassis was nearly unconscious, and that Anderson had her pushed up against a cement retaining wall. Anderson had one hand in-between her thighs, was kissing her neck, and his other hand was unbuttoning his pants. I briefly spoke with another witnesses on scene who had a similar account of what Hebel witnessed.

Anderson said that he didn't know Vassis. He said he met her earlier today on Aurora Ave. N. When asked what they were doing previous to the incident on the bus, he said they were "kicking it".

I took Anderson into custody, and read him his Miranda Warnings. Anderson demanded to know what he was "being charged with". I informed him that he was under arrest for RCW 9A.44.100 Indecent Liberties. I went on to explain to him that a person is guilty of indecent Liberties when they knowingly cause another person to have sexual contact with them by either forcible compulsion, or when the other person is incapable of consent by being mentally incapacitated. I then pointed to Vassis, who was unconscious on the ground, and asked him if he thought she was capable of consenting. Anderson responded by saying "I'm done talking to you". With that, I moved Anderson to the front of my vehicle where he was searched incident to arrest.

During the search, I recovered two latex condoms from Anderson's right front pocket. I also recovered a half consumed 5th of alcohol that was stuffed down the front of Anderson's pants. Both the alcohol, and the condoms were entered into evidence. Anderson was then transported to King County jail via backing Officers Bisch 8492 and Daane 8493.

Officer Passarella stated that he was able to make contact with Vassis's mother.

He said that her behavior was very odd. Passarella said that Vassis's mother did not seemed concerned about the situation in the least. She told him that they were currently living out of a hotel room at the Holiday Inn express on Aurora Ave N. (across the highway from the scene). Passarella said that she told him that she thought Vassis was on a date with an "eye doctor" and that was all she knew. When Officer Passarella called her back for some follow up questions, she didn't answer the phone, and that the name on her voicemail was not the same last name as Vassis's.

Vassis was transported to Harborview Medical Center via AMR. I followed AMR to HMC and informed Medical staff about the incident. Staff stated that they would be conducting the appropriate medical examinations including a toxicology screen due to the nature of the incident.

Officer Bisch took audio statements from witnesses and uploaded them to DEMS.

This incident was screened with Sgt. Lang 6668.

Subject OFFICER STATEMENT.

Related Date/Time AUG-10-2018 (FRI.) 2025

On August 10, 2018, at approximately 1829 hours, while working as a Seattle Police officer on Uniformed Patrol, in a fully marked Police vehicle as Unit 2-David-2, I Officer Passarella #8425, and my partner Officer Murphy #8462, responded to an Indecent liberties call, located at Denny WY/Aurora AV N.

BWV/ICV was utilized, and recorded.

The call remarks provided the following:

2 MIN AGO, CHK FOR SUSP MALE CARRYING AN UNDERAGED DRUNK GIRL OFF THE BUS, THEY WERE REMOVED FROM THE BUS DUE TO RIDERS COMPLAINING THAT HE WAS GROPING HER PUBLICLY, POSS L/S HEADED SB ON FOOT

I arrived at the scene, and I observed the following:

The suspect (Identified as Joey Anderson) was holding onto the victim's upper torso, while she was sitting on the sidewalk. The victim (later Identified as Madison Vassis) appeared to have little to no control of her body, and couldn't keep her body upright on her own.

(she was slumped over, and as soon as Anderson let go of her, she fell over completely flopping down on the sidewalk).

Seattle Fire personnel were trying to render aid to Vassis, but Anderson preventing them from doing.

Anderson appeared to be intoxicated, and he was instructed to move out of the way, so Fire could render aid to Vassis. Fire advised they observed Anderson putting things in Vassis bag when they arrived.

During my interview with Anderson he stated the following:

Immediately, he asked me if he could leave, and told me he wanted to get on the bus to go home. (I told Anderson he was detained) and when asked about what happened, he told me he was was helping out his friend (Vassis).

He didn't know what her real name was, but he called her "Bunny". He went on to say he met her at his work, and she needed help. He didn't know what she took, and later said he knew nothing, and he didn't know "shit". He later said he would make sure she got home.

Vassis appeared to be under the influence of a powerful substance, she was un-alert, and in an out of consciousness. Fire personnel advised she was exhibiting signs of being under the influence of a tranquilizing agent.

Vassis was transported to Harborview Medical Center. When we arrived at HMC, and more time elapsed, Vassis was still in a compete stand of intoxication, and exhibiting signs of being under the influence of a tranquilizer or another narcotic that mimics the same symptoms.

One liquor bottle, and two condoms were recovered from Andersons person incident to arrest. I collected the liquor bottle, packaged it, and submitted it as evidence. The bottle of liquor may have contained other intoxicants. Condoms were recovered from Anderson, and they were entered in as evidence as well.

This report is intended as a summary of the events that occurred under the listed case number. I have paraphrased conversations and do not include any exact sequence of events. For any exact quotes or exact sequence of events, I would refer the reader to my BWV, as it was recording at the time of this incident.

The call remarks provided the following:

2 MIN AGO, CHK FOR SUSP MALE CARRYING AN UNDERAGED DRUNK GIRL OFF THE BUS, THEY WERE REMOVED FROM THE BUS DUE TO RIDERS COMPLAINING THAT HE WAS GROPING HER PUBLICLY, POSS L/S HEADED SB ON FOOT

I arrived at the scene, and I observed the following:

The suspect (Identified as Joey Anderson) was holding onto the victim's upper torso, while she was sitting on the sidewalk. The victim (later Identified as Madison Vassis) appeared to have little to no control of her body, and couldn't keep her body upright on her own.

(she was slumped over, and as soon as Anderson let go of her, she fell over completely flopping down on the sidewalk).

Seattle Fire personnel were trying to render aid to Vassis, but Anderson preventing them from doing.

Anderson appeared to be intoxicated, and he was instructed to move out of the way, so Fire could render aid to Vassis. Fire advised they observed Anderson putting things in Vassis bag when they arrived.

During my interview with Anderson he stated the following:

Immediately, he asked me if he could leave, and told me he wanted to get on the bus to go home. (I told Anderson he was detained) and when asked about what happened, he told me he was was helping out his friend (Vassis).

He didn't know what her real name was, but he called her "Bunny". He went on to say he met her at his work, and she needed help. He didn't know what she took, and later said he knew nothing, and he didn't know "shit". He later said he would make sure she got home.

Vassis appeared to be under the influence of a powerful substance, she was un-alert, and in an out of consciousness. Fire personnel advised she was exhibiting signs of being under the influence of a tranquilizing agent.

Vassis was transported to Harborview Medical Center. When we arrived at HMC, and more time elapsed, Vassis was still in a compete stand of intoxication, and exhibiting signs of being under the influence of a tranquilizer or another narcotic that mimics the same symptoms.

One liquor bottle, and two condoms were recovered from Andersons person incident to arrest. I collected the liquor bottle, packaged it, and submitted it as evidence. The bottle of liquor may have contained other intoxicants. Condoms were recovered from Anderson, and they were entered in as evidence as well.

This report is intended as a summary of the events that occurred under the listed case number. I have paraphrased conversations and do not include any exact sequence of events. For any exact quotes or exact sequence of events, I would refer the reader to my BWV, as it was recording at the time of this incident.

Certification for Determination of Probable Cause

That R. Ishimitsu is a Detective with the Seattle Police Department and has reviewed the investigation conducted in Seattle Police Department Case number 2018-297404. There is probable cause to believe that Joseph Anderson committed the crime of Attempted Indecent Liberties within the City of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington. This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances.

On 08-10-18 at 1829 hours, Police Dispatch received a call from a patron that was riding a King County Metro bus. This patron reported that a male was carrying an underage intoxicated female off the bus because other riders were complaining that the male was groping the under aged intoxicated female publicly on the bus. The male and the under aged intoxicated female were last seen southbound on foot from Denny Way and Aurora Ave. North.

Seattle Police Officers Murphy and Passarella responded to the area. Upon their arrival, Police Dispatch announced that Seattle Fire needed an expedited response. Seattle Fire Department personnel were located and observed tending to an intoxicated male and female. Seattle Police Officers Murphy and Passarella determined that the intoxicated male and female were the same subjects from their original call. The intoxicated male was later identified as Joseph Anderson and the intoxicated female was later identified as MV. William Wheatley (Seattle Fire Department) informed them that Joseph Anderson would not leave MV alone and was trying to drag her off. William Wheatley also informed them that MV stated that she did not know Anderson, and that he was trying to have sex with her.

Seattle Police Officer Passarella observed Joseph Anderson holding onto MV's upper torso, while MV was seated on the sidewalk. MV appeared to have little to no control of her body and could not keep her body upright on her own. Joseph Anderson was separated from MV and Seattle Police Officer Passarella stayed with Joseph Anderson while Seattle Police Officer met with MV. Joseph Anderson immediately asked Seattle Police Officer Passarella that he wanted to take a bus home, and that he was just helping a friend. Joseph Anderson did not know MV's name. Joseph Anderson call MV "bunny" and said that he had met her at his work and that she needed help. Joseph Anderson said that he did not know what MV took and that he knew nothing.

Seattle Police Officer Murphy observed MV to be in a near catatonic state. Seattle Police Officer Murphy attempted to interview MV. MV was not capable of answering questions. MV was sprawled back with her shoulders supported by one of the Seattle Firefighters. MV's legs were spread apart with her skirt hiked up. Seattle Police Officer Murphy noted that MV's underwear was stretched out at the crotch area as if someone had been yanking at them with force. MV was later transported to HMC for treatment.

Seattle Police Officer Murphy contacted Joseph Anderson and read him his Miranda Rights. Joseph Anderson stated that he did not know MV and that he had just met her earlier that day on Aurora Ave. North. Joseph Anderson was asked what they were doing on the bus earlier. Joseph Anderson said that they were just, "kicking it". Seattle Police Officer Murphy placed Joseph Anderson under arrest. During a pat down search, Seattle Police Officer Murphy recovered two latex condoms from Joseph Murphy's right front pants pocket, and a half consumed 5th of alcohol that was stuffed down the front of Joseph Anderson's pants. Joseph Anderson was later booked into the King County Jail for Indecent Liberties.

This Detective responded to the King County Jail on 08-13-18 at 1130 hours. Joseph Anderson was in the infirmary and was still detoxing, so I was unable to meet with him.

MV was interviewed by this Detective on 08-14-18 at 0823 hours. In summary, MV stated that on 08-10-18 she went to the E-Line stop located at 152 Aurora Ave. North. She was planning to meet a date in the Northgate Mall area. While at the bus stop, a male approached her and asked her how much she costed. MV informed the male that she was not a hooker. The male then pulled out a bottle of liquor from his pants and asked if she wanted some. MV told the male no. The male then introduced himself as "Joey" and shook her hand. When MV's E-Bus arrived, she boarded the bus. The male also boarded the bus. They both sat on the bench seat that faced inward behind the bus driver. The male pointed to his tattoos and said that they were his kids. When MV asked how old they were, the male said that he did not know. MV only recalled the first 5 minutes of the bus ride and then blacked out. The next thing she recalled was waking up at HMC with injuries. MV has no recollection of what happened. The only medication she ingested in the morning of this assault was Celexa. MV has been taking this medication for a while. This medication would make her a little sleepy, but has never caused a blackout. MV stated that she did not use any other drugs or alcohol prior to meeting this male. MV felt that "Joey" drugged her when he shook her hand.

Witness [REDACTED] 1(d) was interviewed on 08-14-18.

While he and his wife [REDACTED] 1(d) were walking their dog, he observed a female later identified as MV fall to the ground while she exited a bus in the area of Aurora Ave. North and Denny Way. A male, who was later identified as Joseph Anderson, was observed trying to pick the female up to move her to the side.

As they began to approach Joseph Anderson and MV, [REDACTED] 1(d) observed the Joseph Anderson continuing to struggle to pick the MV up. MV then fell to the ground again. She fell backwards, hitting the back of her head on the ground. Joseph Anderson grabbed MV by the arm and tried to hold her up. [REDACTED] 1(d) noted that they both appeared to be very intoxicated. MV appeared more intoxicated than Joseph Anderson to the point that she could not function. Joseph Anderson was able to get MV up and tried to hold her up against a fence. Joseph Anderson began kissing MV.

[REDACTED] 1(d) asked Joseph Anderson if they were okay. Joseph Anderson looked towards him but did not respond to him. He began to ask other people nearby if they knew what was going on. One person told him that they had already called Seattle Fire.

[REDACTED] 1(d) stood by and waited for Seattle Fire to arrive. While they waited, [REDACTED] 1(d) observed Joseph Anderson continuing to hold MV up against the wall and kissing her. He then observed Joseph Anderson start to unzip his pants and lift the MV's skirt up enough that he could see her underwear. He did not see any genitals. He saw the downward motion of the Joseph Anderson's hand as though he was pulling down MV's underwear. He could not see the Joseph Anderson's hand because it was under the MV's skirt. At that time, he intervened because it appeared to him that Joseph Anderson was going to sexually assault MV. He began to yell at Joseph Anderson. He said, "are you fucking kidding me, do you think she can even fucking consent to that?" Joseph Anderson stopped and acted like he did not know what he was talking about. Joseph Anderson tried to tell him to back off. He told Joseph Anderson that he was not going anywhere. [REDACTED] 1(d) observed MV to be beyond incapacitation and completely out of it. Garret [REDACTED] 1(d) felt that MV would fall to the ground if Joseph Anderson was not holding MV against the fence. [REDACTED] 1(d) told Joseph Anderson that MV needed to be put on the ground slowly. Joseph Anderson complied and laid MV on the ground.

Seattle Fire Department arrived on scene. Seattle Fire personnel propped MV up against the wall. They asked Joseph Anderson to step aside, but he was not willing to step aside. Seattle Fire personnel told Joseph Anderson that they were called to come, and that they needed to evaluate the female. Joseph Anderson was not aggressive, but was preventing access to MV.

While [REDACTED] 1(d) was talking to Seattle Fire personnel, Joseph Anderson tried to do what he did earlier again. He pushed MV back up against the wall and lifted her skirt. [REDACTED] 1(d) intervened again. [REDACTED] 1(d) instructed Joseph Anderson to put the female on the ground because he did not want her to fall again.

Seattle Police arrived and separated Joseph Anderson from MV, so Seattle Fire personnel could complete their evaluation of MV. MV could not keep upright on her own. Seattle Fire personnel asked MV for her name and ask if she knew the male. Since the female's bag, one shoe, and her headphones, were scattered all over the place, the items were gathered and placed next to MV. MV could not give her first name or last name. She tried to find her wallet. When Seattle Fire personnel went to MV's bag to find her wallet, Joseph Anderson walked up to the bag and pulled out a bottle of Bombay Gin Sapphire from the MV's bag. MV began to try to give Seattle Fire personnel hugs. By the time Seattle Fire personnel completed their evaluation of MV, MV was passed out with her head between her knees.

Witness [REDACTED] 1(d) was interviewed by this Detective on 08-14-18.

[REDACTED] 1(d) and her husband [REDACTED] 1(d) exited their Condominium to walk their dog. They had walked approximately 10 feet when their dog pooped. While her husband picking up their dog's poop, she noticed that there was a young woman, later identified as MV, that was on the ground near the bus stop. She also observed a male, later identified as Joseph Anderson, trying to pull MV up by her arms. MV appeared very intoxicated and did not have much control over her body.

They began to walk toward Joseph Anderson and MV. It was clear to her that MV was clearly intoxicated and did not know what was going on. MV's eyes were going all over the place.

While on scene, [REDACTED] 1(d) observed Joseph Anderson holding MV up against the fence of their condominium and used the pressure of his body to hold the MV up against the fence. MV was not capable of holding herself up on her own.

[REDACTED] 1(d) then observed Joseph Anderson push up the front of MV's skirt by bunching it up. Joseph Anderson put his hand up MV's skirt and began to touch the MV's crotch. She did not observe any penetration. She could not see whether the MV's underwear was pushed aside. She was only able to see the top portion of Joseph Anderson's hand and wrist and his hand was clearly moving around on MV's crotch. It was clear to her what Joseph Anderson was attempting to do. She was shaking because she was so upset by what she was seeing. [REDACTED] 1(d) and her husband yelled for Joseph Anderson to stop and that there was no way that the MV could consent in her current condition. It did not appear that MV was aware what Joseph Anderson was doing to her. The male seemed annoyed with them, but stopped what he was doing.

hand and introduced himself as "Joey". When her bus arrived, she boarded the bus. The male boarded the bus as well. They both sat on the benches that fold down right behind the bus driver. The male showed her some of his tattoos and stated that they were his kids. When Vassis asked how old her kids were, he informed her that he did not know. Approximately five minutes into the bus ride, Vassis blacked out. The next thing she knew was waking up at HMC with injuries. Vassis said that she did not use any drugs or alcohol prior to meeting the male.

I then interviewed Amy Nahorniak and was able to interview her.

Following is a summary of statements that Amy Nahorniak gave to Detective Ishimitsu during a recorded telephone interview. These statements are documented in summary form and are not verbatim.

Nahorniak said that Vassis left their residence to meet "Chris" who is an Optometrist in the Northgate area and then go to dinner and a movie. Nahorniak later received a phone call from a Seattle Police Officer to inform her that Vassis was found with her boyfriend name "Joey". Nahorniak informed the Seattle Police Officer that Vassis did not have a friend named "Joey" and that she was supposed to be going on a date. The Officer informed her that Vassis appeared that she had been drinking. Nahorniak informed the Officer that Vassis did not drink. The Officer informed her that people that were riding the bus with Vassis were calling 911, but did not say why. They said that she was found on Denny Way. Nahorniak told the Officer that she was supposed to get off the bus at Northgate and not Denny Way. They informed her that Vassis was going to be transported to HMC. She responded to HMC, but they would not allow her to see Vassis because of a "Situation". Nahorniak was able meet with Vassis at HMC the next morning. Vassis told her that she did not know what was going on. Nahorniak informed Vassis that she was supposed to meet up with "Chris" but she did not make it. "Chris" had called several times to see if she was okay. Nahorniak said that she was found with a person named "Joey", and "Joey" was later booked into jail for something he did to her. Nahorniak observed Vassis to have scrapes all over her body, and her face was swollen. Nahorniak said that Vassis does not have a history of blacking out. Vassis takes Celexa daily, and this only causes her to be a little sleepy. Nahorniak said that her dosage has not changed, and she just takes a small dosage first thing in the morning with her meal.

7) 08-14-18 at 0910 hours: Phone call to [REDACTED] 1(d) This was actually [REDACTED] 1(d) cell phone number. Since he was going to a meeting with work, he asked me to call him back at 1100 hours. [REDACTED] 1(d) provided [REDACTED] 1(d) cell phone number (319 [REDACTED] 1(d)).

The female's eyes were going all over the place. The couple told them that the male and female had gotten kicked off the bus, and while they were exiting the bus, the female fell and hit her head on the ground. Certification for Determination of Probable Cause

That R. Ishimitsu is a Detective with the Seattle Police Department and has reviewed the investigation conducted in Seattle Police Department Case number 2018-297404. There is probable cause to believe that Joseph Anderson committed the crime of Attempted Indecent Liberties within the City of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington. This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances.

On 08-10-18 at 1829 hours, Police Dispatch received a call from a patron that was riding a King County Metro bus. This patron reported that a male was carrying an underage intoxicated female off the bus because other riders were complaining that the male was groping the under aged intoxicated female publicly on the bus. The male and the under aged intoxicated female were last seen southbound on foot from Denny Way and Aurora Ave. North.

Seattle Police Officers Murphy and Passarella responded to the area. Upon their arrival, Police Dispatch announced that Seattle Fire needed an expedited response. Seattle Fire Department personnel were located and observed tending to an intoxicated male and female. Seattle Police Officers Murphy and Passarella determined that the intoxicated male and female were the same subjects from their original call. The intoxicated male was later identified as Joseph Anderson and the intoxicated female was later identified as MV. William Wheatley (Seattle Fire Department) informed them that Joseph Anderson would not leave MV alone and was trying to drag her off. William Wheatley also informed them that MV stated that she did not know Anderson, and that he was trying to have sex with her.

Seattle Police Officer Passarella observed Joseph Anderson holding onto MV's upper torso, while MV was seated on the sidewalk. MV appeared to have little to no control of her body and could not keep her body upright on her own. Joseph Anderson was separated from MV and Seattle Police Officer Passarella stayed with Joseph Anderson while Seattle Police Officer met with MV. Joseph Anderson immediately asked Seattle Police Officer Passarella that he wanted to take a bus home, and that he was just helping a friend. Joseph Anderson did not know MV's name. Joseph Anderson call MV "bunny" and said that he had met her at his work and that she needed help. Joseph Anderson said that he did not know what MV took and that he knew nothing.

Seattle Police Officer Murphy observed MV to be in a near catatonic state. Seattle Police Officer Murphy attempted to interview MV. MV was not capable of answering questions. MV was sprawled back with her shoulders supported by one of the Seattle Firefighters. MV's legs were spread apart with her skirt hiked up. Seattle Police Officer Murphy noted that MV's underwear was stretched out at the crotch area as if someone had been yanking at them with force. MV was later transported to HMC for treatment.

Seattle Police Officer Murphy contacted Joseph Anderson and read him his Miranda Rights. Joseph Anderson stated that he did not know MV and that he had just met her earlier that day on Aurora Ave. North. Joseph Anderson was asked what they were doing on the bus earlier. Joseph Anderson said that they were just, "kicking it". Seattle Police Officer Murphy placed Joseph Anderson under arrest. During a pat down search, Seattle Police Officer Murphy recovered two latex condoms from Joseph Anderson's right front pants pocket, and a half consumed 5th of alcohol that was stuffed down the front of Joseph Anderson's pants. Joseph Anderson was later booked into the King County Jail for Indecent Liberties.

This Detective responded to the King County Jail on 08-13-18 at 1130 hours.

Joseph Anderson was in the infirmary and was still detoxing, so I was unable to meet with him.

MV was interviewed by this Detective on 08-14-18 at 0823 hours. In summary, MV stated that on 08-10-18 she went to the E-Line stop located at 152 Aurora Ave. North. She was planning to meet a date in the Northgate Mall area. While at the bus stop, a male approached her and asked her how much she costed. MV informed the male that she was not a hooker. The male then pulled out a bottle of liquor from his pants and asked if she wanted some. MV told the male no. The male then introduced himself as "Joey" and shook her hand. When MV's E-Bus arrived, she boarded the bus. The male also boarded the bus. They both sat on the bench seat that faced inward behind the bus driver. The male pointed to his tattoos and said that they were his kids. When MV asked how old they were, the male said that he did not know. MV only recalled the first 5 minutes of the bus ride and then blacked out. The next thing she recalled was waking up at HMC with injuries. MV has no recollection of what happened. The only medication she ingested in the morning of this assault was Celexa. MV has been taking this medication for a while. This medication would make her a little sleepy, but has never caused a blackout. MV stated that she did not use any other drugs or alcohol prior to meeting this male. MV felt that "Joey" drugged her when he shook her hand.

Witness [REDACTED] 1(d) was interviewed on 08-14-18.

While he and his wife [REDACTED] 1(d) were walking their dog, he observed a female later identified as MV fall to the ground while she exited a bus in the area of Aurora Ave. North and Denny Way. A male, who was later identified as Joseph Anderson, was observed trying to pick the female up to move her to the side.

As they began to approach Joseph Anderson and MV, [REDACTED] 1(d) observed the Joseph Anderson continuing to struggle to pick the MV up. MV then fell to the ground again. She fell backwards, hitting the back of her head on the ground. Joseph Anderson grabbed MV by the arm and tried to hold her up. [REDACTED] 1(d) noted that they both appeared to be very intoxicated. MV appeared more intoxicated than Joseph Anderson to the point that she could not function. Joseph Anderson was able to get MV up and tried to hold her up against a fence. Joseph Anderson began kissing MV.

[REDACTED] 1(d) asked Joseph Anderson if they were okay. Joseph Anderson looked towards him but did not respond to him. He began to ask other people nearby if they knew what was going on. One person told him that they had already called Seattle Fire.

[REDACTED] 1(d) stood by and waited for Seattle Fire to arrive. While they waited, [REDACTED] 1(d) observed Joseph Anderson continuing to hold MV up against the wall and kissing her. He then observed Joseph Anderson start to unzip his pants and lift the MV's skirt up enough that he could see her underwear. He did not see any genitals. He saw the downward motion of the Joseph Anderson's hand as though he was pulling down MV's underwear. He could not see the Joseph Anderson's hand because it was under the MV's skirt. At that time, he intervened because it appeared to him that Joseph Anderson was going to sexually assault MV. He began to yell at Joseph Anderson. He said, "are you fucking kidding me, do you think she can even fucking consent to that?" Joseph Anderson stopped and acted like he did not know what he was talking about. Joseph Anderson tried to tell him to back off. He told Joseph Anderson that he was not going anywhere. [REDACTED] 1(d) observed MV to be beyond incapacitation and completely out of it. Garret [REDACTED] 1(d) felt that MV would fall to the ground if Joseph Anderson was not holding MV against the fence. [REDACTED] 1(d) told Joseph Anderson that MV needed to be put on the ground slowly. Joseph Anderson complied and laid MV on the ground.

Seattle Fire Department arrived on scene. Seattle Fire personnel propped MV up against the wall. They asked Joseph Anderson to step aside, but he was not willing to step aside. Seattle Fire personnel told Joseph Anderson that they were called to come, and that they needed to evaluate the female. Joseph Anderson was not aggressive, but was preventing access to MV.

While [REDACTED] 1(d) was talking to Seattle Fire personnel, Joseph Anderson tried to do what he did earlier again. He pushed MV back up against the wall and lifted her skirt. [REDACTED] 1(d) intervened again. [REDACTED] 1(d) instructed Joseph Anderson to put the female on the ground because he did not want her to fall again.

Seattle Police arrived and separated Joseph Anderson from MV, so Seattle Fire personnel could complete their evaluation of MV. MV could not keep upright on her own. Seattle Fire personnel asked MV for her name and ask if she knew the male. Since the female's bag, one shoe, and her headphones, were scattered all over the place, the items were gathered and placed next to MV. MV could not give her first name or last name. She tried to find her wallet. When Seattle Fire personnel went to MV's bag to find her wallet, Joseph Anderson walked up to the bag and pulled out a bottle of Bombay Gin Sapphire from the MV's bag. MV began to try to give Seattle Fire personnel hugs. By the time Seattle Fire personnel completed their evaluation of MV, MV was passed out with her head between her knees.

Witness [REDACTED] 1(d) was interviewed by this Detective on 08-14-18.

[REDACTED] 1(d) and her husband [REDACTED] 1(d) exited their Condominium to walk their dog. They had walked approximately 10 feet when their dog pooped. While her husband picking up their dog's poop, she noticed that there was a young woman, later identified as MV, that was on the ground near the bus stop. She also observed a male, later identified as Joseph Anderson, trying to pull MV up by her arms. MV appeared very intoxicated and did not have much control over her body.

They began to walk toward Joseph Anderson and MV. It was clear to her that MV was clearly intoxicated and did not know what was going on. MV's eyes were going all over the place.

While on scene, [REDACTED] 1(d) observed Joseph Anderson holding MV up against the fence of their condominium and used the pressure of his body to hold the MV up against the fence. MV was not capable of holding herself up on her own.

[REDACTED] 1(d) then observed Joseph Anderson push up the front of MV's skirt by bunching it up. Joseph Anderson put his hand up MV's skirt and began to touch the MV's crotch. She did not observe any penetration. She could not see whether the MV's underwear was pushed aside. She was only able to see the top portion of Joseph Anderson's hand and wrist and his hand was clearly moving around on MV's crotch. It was clear to her what Joseph Anderson was attempting to do. She was shaking because she was so upset by what she was seeing. [REDACTED] 1(d) and her husband yelled for Joseph Anderson to stop and that there was no way that the MV could consent in her current condition. It did not appear that MV was aware what Joseph Anderson was doing to her. The male seemed annoyed with them, but stopped what he was doing.

A few minutes later, Joseph Anderson pressed MV up against the wall again and put his hand up the MV's skirt and began doing the same thing as before. Once again, they told Joseph Anderson to stop.

Seattle Fire arrived and began evaluating MV. MV could not remain seated upright on her own. At some point, she observed Joseph Anderson pull a bottle of Bombay Sapphire from MV's purse. While Seattle Fire was evaluating MV, MV saw their dog and wanted to pet their dog. MV was observed talking with slurred speech.

On 08-15-18 this Detective met with Joseph Anderson at the King County Jail. Joseph Anderson was read his Miranda Rights. Joseph Anderson made the decision not to talk with this Detective without an attorney.

Under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington, I certify that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. Signed and dated by me this 15th day of August 2018, at Seattle, Washington.

- 3) 08-13-18 at 133 hours: Assigned this case to myself for investigation.
- 4) 08-13-18 at 1400 hours: Phone message from Amy. She said that she was the mother of Madison Vassis. She asked for me to call her at 206-460-4532.
- 5) 08-14-18 at 0515 hours: Run criminal history check on Joseph Anderson.
- 6) 08-14-18 at 0823 hours: Phone call to Amy Nahorniak. Since Madison Vassis was available, I asked to speak with her.

Following is a summary of statements that Madison Vassis gave to Detective Ishimitsu during a recorded telephone interview. These statements are documented in summary form and are not verbatim.

Vassis said that she was on her way to meet a date in the Northgate Mall area on 08-10-18. While waiting for the E-Line bus at 152nd and Aurora Ave. North, an unknown male approached her and asked her how much she costed. Vassis informed the male that she was not a hooker and to please leave her alone. The male then pulled out a bottle of liquor from his pants and offered her a drink. Vassis declined his offer. The male then shook her hand and introduced himself as "Joey". When her bus arrived, she boarded the bus. The male boarded the bus as well. They both sat on the benches that fold down right behind the bus driver. The male showed her some of his tattoos and stated that they were his kids. When Vassis asked how old her kids were, he informed her that he did not know. Approximately five minutes into the bus ride, Vassis blacked out. The next thing she knew was waking up at HMC with injuries. Vassis said that she did not use any drugs or alcohol prior to meeting the male.

I then interviewed Amy Nahorniak and was able to interview her.

Following is a summary of statements that Amy Nahorniak gave to Detective Ishimitsu during a recorded telephone interview. These statements are documented in summary form and are not verbatim.

Nahorniak said that Vassis left their residence to meet "Chris" who is an Optometrist in the Northgate area and then go to dinner and a movie. Nahorniak later received a phone call from a Seattle Police Officer to inform her that Vassis was found with her boyfriend name "Joey". Nahorniak informed the Seattle Police Officer that Vassis did not have a friend named "Joey" and that she was supposed to be going on a date. The Officer informed her that Vassis appeared that she had been drinking. Nahorniak informed the Officer that Vassis did not drink. The Officer informed her that people that were riding the bus with Vassis were calling 911, but did not say why. They said that she was found on Denny Way. Nahorniak told the Officer that she was supposed to get off the bus at Northgate and not Denny Way. They informed her that Vassis was going to be transported to HMC. She responded to HMC, but they would not allow her to see Vassis because of a "Situation". Nahorniak was able to meet with Vassis at HMC the next morning. Vassis told her that she did not know what was going on. Nahorniak informed Vassis that she was supposed to meet up with "Chris" but she did not make it. "Chris" had called several times to see if she was okay. Nahorniak said that she was found with a person named "Joey", and "Joey" was later booked into jail for something he did to her. Nahorniak observed Vassis to have scrapes all over her body, and her face was swollen. Nahorniak said that Vassis does not have a history of blacking out. Vassis takes Celexa daily, and this only causes her to be a little sleepy. Nahorniak said that her dosage has not changed, and she just takes a small dosage first thing in the morning with her meal.

Following is a summary of statements that [REDACTED] 1(d) gave to Detective Ishimitsu during a recorded telephone interview. These statements are documented in summary form and are not verbatim.

[REDACTED] 1(d) and her husband [REDACTED] 1(d) exited their Condominium ([REDACTED] 1(d) John St.) sometime around 1730 hours. They were going to walk their dog to the Vet to purchase some additional flea and tick medication. From the Vet, they planned to walk to the South Lake Union block party to check out the food trucks there. They had walked approximately 10 feet from their Condominium when their dog pooped. While her husband was picking up their dog's poop, she noticed that there was a young woman that was on the ground near the bus stop. She also observed a male that trying to pull the female up by her arms. The female appeared very intoxicated and did not have much control over her body.

[REDACTED] 1(d) told her husband what she saw. They began to walk toward the male and female. There was a couple with their approximately 12-year-old son at the scene. [REDACTED] 1(d) asked them if they knew what had happened, because it was clear to [REDACTED] 1(d) that the female that fell to the ground was clearly intoxicated and did not know what was going on. The female's eyes were going all over the place. The couple told them that the male and female had gotten kicked off the bus, and while they were exiting the bus, the female fell and hit her head on the ground. The couple said that they had called for medics to check on the female. [REDACTED] 1(d) could see what looked like a little blood at the back of the female's head.

While on scene, [REDACTED] 1(d) observed the male try to hold the female up against While talking with the couple, [1(d)] observed the male push up the front of the female's skirt by bunching it up. The male put his hand up the female's skirt and began to touch the female's crotch. Seattle Fire then began evaluating the female. The female could not remain seated upright on her own. At some point, she observed the male pull a bottle of Bombay Sapphire from the female's purse. It was not clear to [1(d)] if the female knew the male very well or knew him at all.

[1(d)] noted that the male appeared that he had been drinking, but not even close to where the female was at intoxication wise. While Seattle Fire was evaluating the female, the female saw their dog and wanted to pet their dog. [1(d)] observed the female having slurred speech.

[1(d)] felt that the female was young and could have either been a freshman in college or just graduated from high school. The female had long blonde hair, with a crown on top of her head. The female wore pink shoes, an unknown top possibly a tank top, glasses, and had a big purse. [1(d)] could not recall what the suspect wore other than that he wore baggier jeans.

CRIME LABORATORY REPORT

Agency: Seattle Police Department
Agency No.: 2018-297404
Agency Rep: Detective Roger Ishimitsu
Suspect: Anderson, Joseph L.
Victim: Vassis, Madison C.
Laboratory No.: 118-002400
Request No.: 0001

Results and Conclusions

1. No semen was detected on the perineal/vulvar, vaginal, anal interior, or anal exterior swabs or on the underwear.
2. No male DNA was detected on the perineal/vulvar or vaginal swabs.

Evidence

Item 835001-1: Sealed sexual assault evidence collection kit reportedly collected from Madison Vassis. The perineal/vulvar, vaginal, anal interior, and anal exterior swabs and the underwear were examined.

Methods and Observations

Portions of the perineal/vulvar, vaginal, anal interior, and anal exterior swabs were removed and extracted. The extracts were examined microscopically for the presence of spermatozoa. No spermatozoa were observed. The extracts were further tested for p30 (a protein used in the detection of semen) with negative results for all. No further testing was performed on the anal interior or anal exterior swabs. The perineal/vulvar and vaginal swabs samples were extracted for DNA content.

Yellow staining was observed in the interior front crotch area of the underwear. The interior crotch area, including portions of the front and back panels, was mapped for the presence of acid phosphatase (AP, an enzyme found in elevated levels in semen). AP was detected correlating to the yellow staining. A portion of the staining was removed, extracted, and examined microscopically for the presence of spermatozoa. No spermatozoa were observed. The extract was additionally tested for the presence of p30 with a negative result. No further testing was performed on the underwear.

The DNA extracts from the perineal/vulvar and vaginal swabs were quantified for total human and human male DNA content. No male DNA was detected. No further testing was performed on the perineal/vulvar or vaginal extracts.
